

The data used to create this chart was extracted from Autism Speaks' 2014 audited financial statements. You can find the original data here on Autism Speaks' website.

In 2014 (like other years) Less than 4% of Autism Speaks' expenditures support Autistic people and their families. Salaries/benefits and associated expenses account for almost 20% of its expenditures.

The Ugly Truth Broken Down

Advertising, marketing & donated media	$52,935,472	43.91%
Salaries, benefits & payroll taxes	$23,300,191	19.33%
Science grants & awards	$15,300,709	12.69%
Professional services including donated	$5,465,516	4.53%
Family service grants & awards	$4,631,690	3.84%
Supplies & equipment	$3,435,590	2.85%
Venues & services	$2,674,630	2.22%
Travel, meals, lodging, transportation & catering	$2,568,518	2.13%
Occupancy	$2,157,190	1.79%
Postage & Shipping	$960,983	0.80%
Donation processing & bank fees	$946,242	0.78%
Premiums & recognition	$941,784	0.78%
Printing	$855,155	0.71%
Conferences, meetings, & sponsorships	$842,462	0.70%
Merchandising & biomaterials	$645,112	0.54%
Telephone & Internet	$536,014	0.44%
Site, audit, licensing & filing fees	$498,904	0.41%
Legal fees	$460,398	0.38%
Depreciation & amortization	$387,407	0.32%
Temporary services	$362,888	0.30%
Other	$267,438	0.22%
Photography & videography	$208,305	0.17%
Insurance	$165,259	0.14%
Total 2014 expenditures	$120,547,857

Donate to underfunded organizations that support Autistic people.

AutismWomensNetwork.org

Ed Wiley Autism Acceptance Library

Tone it Down Taupe